

TOXIC GAS EXPOSURE POLICY

Color Code	Health Effect	Response
BLUE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Highly sensitive individuals may be affected at lower concentrations Little or no risk to healthy individuals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sensitive individuals should take actions to avoid exposure Non-affected individuals should always be on alert for changing conditions
ORANGE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sensitive individuals with respiratory problems may experience health effects and should take precautions to include leaving the area. The general public may experience minor respiratory issues and should be on the alert while minimizing exposure 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Avoid outdoor activities that cause heavy breathing or breathing through the mouth Minimize all physical activities Take actions to limit exposure by leaving area or going indoors
RED	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Severe conditions may exist such as choking, inability to breathe that affects entire exposed population Immediate Danger to Health 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take actions necessary to limit further exposure (Leave Area and Remain Indoors) Prepare for possible Evacuation Seek medical attention if severely affected